STAT

In reply to your letter of 19 December 1949, I have again reviewed the possibility of your employment by this Agency in the light of existing vacancies. After a very careful study, I find that there has been no change in the situation as previously described to you, and that there is no possibility of availing ourselves of your kind offer of service.

With kindest regards for the New Year,
I am

Sincerely,

Signed - dep via ER 1/1/50

Rear Admiral R. H. Hillenkoetter,
Director of Central Intelligence,
Washington 25, D. C.

My dear Admiral: (Ref. your letter of 5 Dec. '49).

I must say that I am at a complete loss to understand why the Central Intelligence Agency cannot avail itself of my services in some way.

STAT

I have offered my services on a purely voluntary basis. Surely the Agency could use me abroad or here.

For the above reasons, I urge that you have still another review made of my application to the end that you can place me.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]

P.S. I wish for you, and yours, a Very Merry Christmas and a Most Happy and Prosperous New Year.
